Happy Saint's Days

March is a busy month with Wales, Cornwall and Ireland all celebrating their National Saints Days. Saint David's Day (Wales) was celebrated on Saturday and Saint Piran's Day (Cornwall) will be celebrated on Wednesday with celebrations continuing into the weekend. Saint Patrick's Day (Ireland) is starting to look like Saint Patrick's week as celebrations around the country start on the 13th and continue to the 17th. We also have a couple of Celtic Festivals in VIC this month to kick off the Celtic Festival circuit for 2025.

Happy St David's, St Piran's, & St Patrick's Day!
